

FESTIVAL TOUR SANGHAI MINIPUR AND HORBILLFESTIVAL

Day 1

Delhi/ Gawahati /to imphal [Manipur]/ checked into hotel after noon visit famous IMA Market almost 3000 mother they are selling fish/ handlooms and household tools o/ night/ hotel

Day 2 visit sanghai festival

Day 3

morning breakfast visit Lamjao National Park (brow-antlered deer Cervus eldi, called sangai, slow loris, Assamese and stump-tailed macaques and the Hoolock gibbon, Rhesus monkey, large Indian civet Viverricula indica, small Indian civet Viverricula indica, common otter Lutralutra, wild boar Sus scrofa, marbled cat, Temminck's golden cat, Himalayan black bear, Malayan bear), eventually hiking in Keibul After noon after lunch visit war cemeteries Indian Army cemeteries who died in second world war. /VISIT SAHEED MINER the spirit of Manipur martyrs who sacrificed their lives while fighting with against the British in 1891/ visit without lake /loktak lake / over/night Hotel

Day 4

imphal to Kohima 140km 5 hrs over/ night hotel/Local Home Stay

Day 5 VISIT HORNBILL FESTIVAL

Day 6

Morning Visit Festival and afternoon visit visit to Kohima (the capital of Nagaland). Sightseeing tour of Kohima excursion to Khonoma located 20 KMS away from Kohima in the west. Khonoma is village of Angami tribes having the customs of courage & valour. In the history it is written that Khonoma village protected numerous villages in its previous good time. The gate of the village speaks the British access's story at the hills of Naga. Also visit War Cemetery a memorial of the soldiers during World War II. Take a tour of the Museum which has rare article's collection of various tribal communities of Nagaland that tells the Naga's tradition & history. Pay a short visit to local tribal market. If time permits visit Kigwema village also known as Kepfiizha and have lunch at Dimori Cove Guesthouse. You may visit Angami Tribal village at Jakhama and a Village Resort at ToupHEMA this is operated by the community of Angami Nagas. Later enjoy the cultural appearance done by the folks of village. Stay overnight at the hotel.

Day 7 Kohima to: Kaziranga 230km 7 hrs drive over/ night hotel

Day 8 Kaziranga

Wake up early amidst the chirping of birds and take the Elephant safari through the Central Range. Observe at close quarters the famous Indian One –horned Rhino. After breakfast encounter the famous one horned Rhino by jeep safari through the eastern range.

Day 9

Morning visit a Tea Garden. Overnight stay in Kaziranga.

Day 10 Kaziranga to Drive and Cross Mighty

Majuli 160 km2 hrs. Island of majuli

Day 11 Majuli Island

visit Satras, Missing Tribe Village & Mask making village. Evening free for self-exploration / at leisure Majuli is the largest fresh Water mid-river deltoid island in the world. It is situated in the upper reaches of the river Brahmaputra in Assam. This Island, with a population of 1.6 Lakhs, majority being tribal, is endowed with rich heritage and has been the abode of the Neo-Vaishnavite culture. The island is a bio-diversity hotspot and has rich ecology with rare species of flora and fauna. Majuli for the past five centuries has been the cultural capital of Assam. The main depositories of cultural and spiritual heritage are the Sattras, which are just like Gurukul (hermitages) of yore. Here up to 400 celibates' stay for life preserving spiritual and cultural heritage, renouncing worldly desires. From the time of the great Vaishnavite renaissance of 14th and 15th century AD, under Srimanta Sankardeva, Srimanta Madhab Deva and other saints this island became the seat of Vaishnavite religion, art and culture. The famous Satriya Nritya (Dance) and Ankiya Bhaona (Traditional Drama) created by Sankardeva are now internationally acclaimed and nationally honoured. Majuli is equally famous for Tribal Folk Culture and Heritage. It is said to be the cradle of Mising and Deori cultures... explore Majuli. Overnight in Majuli

Day 11 6/12/2016 Majuli island to Jorhat and fly to Kolkata/ Delhi By connected flight